RUNAWAY ON HYDE PARK AVENUE

Fortunately It Resulted in No Damage.

Death of John Chatman at Edwards-dale—Miss Edna Stevens Entertained

Her Friends at a 5 O'Clock

Tea—Personal Mention and Minor

News Notes.

The council special viaduct committee, consisting of City Engineer Phillips, Selectmen Manly, Thomas, Wagner and Common Councilmen Robertson and Hickox, having in charge the West Lackawanna avenue viaduct, will meet this evening in City Clerk

Lavelle's office.

The question of damages is what caused the project to be unapproached for several months, and together with the decision of court relative to the appointment of viaduct was a knock-out to the popular favor which the viaduct had received.

THE HORSE TOOK FRIGHT.

Dashed Along North Hyde Park Avenue

But Did No Damage.

An exciting runaway occurred yesterday afternoon on North Hyde Park avenue. Walter Lang, a driver for J.

D. Williams & Co., was driving around gathering ice cream tubs and stopped at a house on the above avenue. The animal, which was attached to a light wagon, took fright and dashed away.

The horse made a turn from Hyde Park avenue to Price street, where it kept on at a frightful rate of speed.

After a long run the animal wended its way to the barn. No damage was done beyond a break in the rear portion of the wagon.

COMPANY HOUSE BURNED DOWN

John Lydon's House in the Twelfth

Ward Destroyed by Fire Early

Yesterday Morning—Deputy Factory Inspector Castles Exonerates

the Meadow Brook Silk Company.

Funeral of Philip Schank—Personals and Other Items of News.

Melville Rooney, of 815 Orchard street, was kicked in the face yesterday by one of a team of horses he was driving, and two of his teeth were knocked out, another broken, and his upper lip cut so that it required three stitches to sew it up. Rooney was employed as a teamster by his sister.

Yesterday he was hauling brick from the Connell brick yard at No. 5.

He was hauling a load of brick yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock and the team was climbing a steep hill near the brick yard. He was walking alongside the team and reached over to strike the off horse with the whip to spur up the animal. The one nearest him without warning shot out its foot and kicked him in the face. Rooney was knocked senseless and laid along the road for an hour before he was noticed.

A carriage was brought and the injured man taken to Dr. Wala's office.

The doctor found his neck much swollen, making breathing difficult.

MEADOW BROOK CO. EXONERATED.

Deputy Inspector Castles Relieves It of Criminal Charges.

Deputy Factory Inspector Benjamin

T. Castles, of this city, investigated the accident to Miss Spohrer, of Maple street, yesterday. Mr. Castles visited the Meadow Brook silk mill and heard the testimony of those who had knowledge of the casualty.

How it occurred no one was definitely able to state. But the investigation, as far as it went, tended to prove that Miss Spohrer was about to get on the elevator, when a girl near her, whose dress had caught in the machinery, screamed at the top of her voice.

Miss Spohrer turned around and saw her companion's dress caught in the machinery, causing her to take the girl that had her dress caught succeeded in releasing it, but Miss Spohrer lost her balance and fell down the shaft.

The Meadow Brook silk company

was exonerated from any carelessness by Mr. Castles. He visited the girl's home afterward and his interview with the family convinced him that they do not hold the silk company in any manner responsible.

The family physician, Dr. A. J. Kolt, stated last night that the girl is suffering from slight concussion of the brain, but that she will entirely recover from it.

COMPANY HOUSE BURNED.

It Was Occupied by John Lydon's

Family and All Furniture Was Saved.

A company house in the upper end of the Twelfth ward, owned by William Connell & Co., and occupied by the family of John Lydon, was completely destroyed by fire at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The fire is said to have originated from an overheated stove pipe.

When the black volumes of smoke began to rise from the burning house crowds ran excitedly toward the National breaker, which all thought had caught fire, and which is situated not more than 500 feet away from the house that was destroyed. Fortunately their fears were unfounded and many a sigh
